HOST NOTES:

Favorite Bible Verse: ... for I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances. I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want. I can do everything through him who gives me strength And my God will meet all your needs according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus. – Philippians 4: 11-13, 19.

Charlie's working career began as an entrepreneur following graduation from Georgia Tech, when he and two partners designed, constructed, opened and operated a retail hardware business in Sandersville, Georgia. He eventually purchased the interests of his partners and continued sole ownership and active managerial involvement in that business enterprise until the summer of 2007, when he sold the business to new entrepreneurs and began his pursuit of an interest in real estate. Since 2011, he has served as Executive Director of the Development Authority of Washington County, GA. Charlie is married to wife, Jeanie, and has three sons and one grandson. Charlie enjoys wing shooting, and has a passion for both upland birds and waterfowl hunting.
