A native of Albany, Georgia, Tom was brought up fishing and hunting, taught by his father at an early age. He is married to his wife of 20 years, Maureen. Between them, they have three children, and seven grandchildren. Tom has transitioned from being a hunter and a fisherman, to a guide and hook baiter for his kids, back to a hunter and fisherman, and now back to a guide and hook baiter for his grandkids.

He has always had a really soft spot in his heart for young people and children. Catch-A-Dream has given him a ministry that he has always needed and wanted. It has truly allowed him to "Catch His Dream"!! He has been a Volunteer Host for Catch-A-Dream for since 2008, and always looks forward to the next trip, family, and making friends for life, and spreading the word about our "Hope" for Eternal Life.
