

HOST: Miles Lee

Hometown: Savannah, GA

Occupation: Insurance Broker

Hobbies | Interests: Hunting, Fishing, Working at the farm, Spending time with my family

Favorite Inspirational Quote: Do all the good you can, by all the means you can, in all the ways you can, in all the places you can, at all the times you can, to all the people you can, as long as ever you can. – John Wesley

SERVING
AS HOST
SINCE 2020

HOST NOTES:

Favorite Bible Verse: ... Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your request to God. – Philippians 4:6

Miles grew up in the small town of Sandersville, GA before attending The University of Mississippi where he trained Labrador retrievers all four years of his college career. Upon graduation, Miles moved back to his home state of GA and resided in Atlanta where he met his wife, Allyson. Miles and Allyson have one daughter, Rowan, and have recently moved to Savannah to be closer to family. In high school, Miles was an active participant in the Big Brother mentorship program and was active with the Ole Miss and Oxford Ducks Unlimited Chapters where he helped raise money for conservation efforts. Currently, he is an insurance broker for McGriff Insurance and serves on the Young Agents Board for the Independent Insurance Agents of GA.

